Cooper at Kirnbach near Sinsheim (southeast of Heidelberg); immigrated 1732 to near Lancaster, Pennsylvania.

Hans and Anna Barbara came to America September 25, 1732, aboard the ship Loyal Judith, from Rotterdam through the port of Philadelphia. Fever and flu plagued them during their trip and only 105 landed. Bad conditions of water taken in casks containing white wine caused illness and death. The greater part of their goods was lost. They resided in Lancaster, Pennsylvania and attended Trinity Lutheran Church.

Information from the Palatines to America Immigrant File says they were French Huguenots from Lorraine - an old province in the N.E. of France that, since the Treaty of Peace at Frankfurt in 1871, again became attached to Germany. In ancient times, this name applied to the countries of Germany and the Netherlands, N.W. of the Rhine.

Their children settled around Southeast and South Central Pennsylvania and Maryland and the children's offspring migrated to Ohio (around 1800), Indiana, Michigan and other points west. Some of the information came from "The Trail of Huguenots", p. 277 and from "The History of the Pennsylvania German Pioneers" by Strassburger and Hinke, vol. 1, p. 88. also p. 594-vol. 1 more information.

This is written in the records of Trinity Lutheran Church, Lancaster, Pennsylvania: "Philipp Spanseiler died April 19, 1752, after living in matrimony with his wife Barbara 41 years and producing with her 6 children, of whom 3 are living and 3 are dead. Buried the 20th, aged 76 years."

(From Monocacy and Catoclin) "George Sponseller, an early pioneer in the Adams County area, was 16 years old when he emigrated with his parents, brothers Jacob and Andrew and sister Elisabeth from near Sinsheim, Pfalz. He married in Pennsylvania and we have the birth record of one daughter, Anna Margaretha, in 1743. George's daughter's birth and his apparent second marriage in 1744 to Louise Lehman, are among the earliest records of the Conewago Lutheran Church, established by Rev. David Chandler along the road between later Hanover and McSherrystown. The area was then part of Lancaster County, after 1749 York County and after 1800 near the boundary between York and Adams Counties. The farm of George and Louisa was south of the church on Sponseller Road, near later Littlestown. Tax records show that in 1779 they owned 250 acres, 2 horses and 3 cows, typical of settlers around them. Although three of their sons, Frederick, George and Michael emigrated to Ohio, sons Andrew, Jacob, Abraham and Henry lived in the Adams County area. The large proportion of boys in large families remained a characteristic of many later Sponseller families thus spreading the family name.

George Sponseller, Sr. was called yeoman and farmer when his will was probated in 1778. He asked his wife and children "to do all sorts of work that they can until the boys are bound out to trades." Frederick, George, Jr. and Jacob were older sons and the others were quite young. George, Jr. was instructed to tend the home farm and send his three young brothers to school. Son Jacob could keep the place where he lived, providing he paid 50 pounds to the estate. To the will George made his mark to a signature spelled Georg Sponseyler. The umlat over y was used by numerous Lutheran and Reformed early American clergy. Settlement of the estate in 1780 left the large sum of 1043 pounds. Items sold included an old red cow, a black heffer, old sheep with lambs, 3 bushels flax seed, a heap of hemp, a still and a dung drag."

Will dated March 19, 1778. Mentioned following children: George, Jr., Cathareena, Frederick, Margareta, Andrew, Abraham, Jacob and 1 sick girl. At this time, George owned 245 acres in Germany Township. The will amounted to 956 £, 11 shillings, 7 pence. In 1790, Louisa sold her property.

Contemporary translation of George Sponseller's will (original in German), dated March 19, 1778: To wife right to stay on place as long as she remains unmarried. To have thirds of grain raised on the place and hay for two cows.. If she married she is to leave the place. She and the children are to help to do all sorts of work they can, until the boys are bound to trades. Personal estate is to be equally divided between all the children. George Sponseller is to till the place as long as she is unmarried. If she married then George Sponseller Junior is to have the place at a reasonable cost. If neither is able to manage the place, it shall be sold. If Jacob Sponseller will keep his place where he lives, he is to pay 50 pounds for it, and shall have no share in this place, but of the personal estate he is to have an equal share. Isaac Shoun and George Rinacker are each to receive 50 pounds less than their equal shares, which is to be for the maintenance of the sick girl. George Sponseller the younger is to send the thre youngest boys to school to learn to read and write. Executors: son George Sponseller, Jacob Will and John Huber. Witnesses: Andrew Schriver and Peter Young. Probated April 13, 1778. Witness Young stated that he had been sent to go to the house of Sponseller and on coming there was informed the instrument of writing was signed by the testator before he arrived. That it was intended to be sent to Henry Slagle to be done in English. Young had been sent for to be a witness. John Hoover who had written the will, took it and went to Sponseller where he was lying on the bed, and Young standing by and upon questioning by Hoover, Sponseller said it was his will. [Translation by Henry Slagle on 13 April 1778]

Born near Sinsheim; emigrated 1732 with parents to near Lancaster and then to near Littlestown on Sponseller Road. Naturalized in 1752. Farm southwest of Littlestown; made will.

(Other information says that George was naturalized at the Philadelphia Co. courthouse on April 4, 1762.)

land was the larger part of a tract of land which the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by Patent dated August 31, 1809, granted to Michael Clapsaddle (Patent Book H, vol 2 page 95). Michael died testate and his will was probated August 8, 1843. His executors, Jacob Clapsaddle, Joseph Clapsaddle and David Clapsaddle, sold the land to Daniel Sunday and his wife in a deed dated April 5, 1848. Daniel died testate and he bequeathed the land to his wife, Amy. Amy remarried to John Snyder and sold the land to Esther Sponseller in a deed dated April 5, 1854.

Bloomville, was born November 11, 1815, in Stark County, Ohio. His father, John Sponseller, of Columbiana County, Ohio, was one of the earliest settlers of Stark County, Ohio, going there when there were but two or three houses at Canton, and there he married Miss Catherine Harpster, a native of Pennsylvania, and of their eight children seven are living; of these Frederick, John and Mrs. Catherine Sellers reside in this county. Our subject was married, February 12, 1840, to Elizabeth Prouse, born September 13, 1818, in Stark County, where her parents, William and Hannah (Dock) Prouse, of Pennsylvania, early settled, and there lived and died, the former in 1872, aged eighty-three; the latter in 1879, aged seventy-eight. After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Sponseller turned their faces Westward and located on their present farm in Bloom Township, this county. Here they began clearing their farm, enduring all the -struggles and hardships of pioneer life. They have been industrious and successful, having acquired a fine farm of 240 acres well-improved land, and have given their children a good start in life. Their children are William, deceased; John, died at thirty-one years of age; Philip; Abraham; Elisha, deceased; David; Levi; and Hannah C., deceased. HISTORY OF STARK COUNTY, OHIO, 1892, by Chapman Bros; page 428:

***** "ABRAHAM SPONSELLER is a fine representative of the native born citizens of Stark County, who are now closely associated with its interests. He comes of a distinguished and well-known pioneer family, and is one of the principal farmers and stock-raisers in Canton Township, where he has extensive interests. He was born on the northeast quarter of section 25, in the above-named township, October 8, 1820, while his father, John Sponseller, was born in 1789, in Adams County, Pa.

Grandfather Frederick Sponseller was a carpenter during his early life, and was born in Pennsylvania, of German parents. After coming to Ohio, in 1802, he located in Columbiana County, where he entered a tract of land, on which he erected a log cabin and began the work of its improvement. Indians, as well as wild animals, were numerous, and bears often attacked the hogs of the pioneers. The grandfather lived and died there At the advanced age of eighty years. His wife, who lived to be about the same age, reared a large family of children, namely: John, Henry, George, Frederick, Andrew, Conrad and Julian. Religiously, the grandparents were members of the Lutheran Church, and in politics, Frederick Sponseller was a Democrat.

The father of our subject, who accompanied his parents on their removal to Columbiana County, this State, there resided until reaching his majority, when he returned on foot to his native county in Pennsylvania, and there worked for two or three years. At the end of that time, coming again to this State, he was married in Washington Township, this county, March 28, 1815. He made his home on the northeast quarter of section 5, which was the property of his father, and besides being engaged in its operations was a member in a mercantile enterprise. He was very unfortunate in his venture, and was compelled to part with his stock in the concern and several hundred dollars beside..

Mr. Sponseller. then determining to follow the occupation of a farmer, erected a log cabin on an uncultivated tract of land which he cleared, and at the same time worked out for other parties, receiving for his labor fifty cents per day. Like all the old settlers, he was subjected to many hardships and inconveniences, And was compelled to go to Cleveland to market his grain. Although a sufferer from rheumatism all his life, he was a very hard worker and successful agriculturist, owning at time as much as thirteen hundred acres of land in Stark, Seneca and Wyandotte Counties. The property in the latter two counties he entered from the Government, and later divided the amount between his children. He was in all respects a man of excellent character, whose obliging manner and honest, straightforward dealings gained him the regard of all about him. He possessed foresight and sound common-sense, and was a very capable manager, so that his place was among the solid men of this township. He departed this life in 1874.

The maiden name of our subject's mother was Catherine Herpster. She was born in Frederick County, Md., June 28, 1794, and came to this county with her parents, Frederick and Mary Herpster, in 1814, they locating in Washington Township. Her father was born in Baden Baden, Germany, and was a young man when he came to America, making his first location in Maryland. On coming to this section, he was one of the early settlers in the above-named township, and entering a tract of land from the Government, immediately began the arduous task of clearing it from the forest and brush, and placing it under good improvement. He owned an entire section of six hundred and forty acres of land, and was known throughout the county as a successful farmer, and his standing in the business world was of the highest, as his dealings were always conducted after the most honorable methods. He was bright wide-awake, and possessed true public spirit which favored any scheme that would in any way promote the advancement of his township. He was drafted into the Whiskey Rebellion during President, Washington's administration. To April 14, he was married to Miss Mary Shadows, and to them were born nine children. In religious affairs, Mr. Herpster was one of the influential members of the Lutheran Church.

Our subject was one in a family of eight children, namely: Frederick, Mary and Julia Ann, deceased; John, Catherine, Henry and David. The mother died at the advanced age of ninety years, nine months and two days. With her husband, she as a member of the Lutheran Church, and a most estimable and worthy lady. In his political relations, the father of our subject was a Democrat.

Abraham Sponseller received his first schooling in a log cabin with its primitive furnishings, and, in the intervals of study, assisted his father on the farm until reaching his majority. He then entered the schools of Canton, where he assiduously pursued a course of study, and has since added to the knowledge gained therein by systematic and useful reading. His marriage with Miss Elizabeth Stoner occurred April 15, 1847. Mrs. Sponseller was born in Pennsylvania, May 18, 1823, and reared a family of eight children: John H., George W., Samuel, William, Mary, David, Lucy and Augustus.

After his marriage, he of whom we write took up his abode on section 25, where he had fifty acres of land, and there resided until 1865. At that date he located on the quarter-section of land where he is at present residing, and which with its well-tilled fields and neat appointments, is one of the most desirable farms in this part of the county. The residence is a well-built and attractive one, furnished in accordance with the tastes of its occupants, and displays the presence of refined womanhood in its arrangement. Mr. Sponseller also has on his place a large frame barn and other outbuildings which are necessary to the successful prosecution of his calling. After consideration of the political questions that agitate the people, our subject gave his allegiance to the Democratic party, and staunchly supports its various measures. He is, however, independent on local issues. He has been called upon to serve in the responsible offices of Justice of the Peace and Township Trustee. Although reared in the faith of the Lutheran Church, he is not a member of any religious body. His wife, who is connected with the Evangelical Society, is the possessor of many friends."

Source of this biography is the HISTORY OF STARK COUNTY, OHIO, 1892, by Chapman Bros; page 392: ***** "DAVID SPONSELLER.

The farming interests of Canton Township are well represented by this gentleman, who is one of its most skilled and prominent farmers and whose valuable estate is one of the best in the county. The Sponseller family located in this section as early as 1814, and hence has been closely connected with its history, as will be found by referring to the sketch of Abraham Sponseller, elsewhere in this volume. Like many of the best residents of this county, our subject was born within its limits, his birth occurring on section 25 of the above township, April 24, 1837. His boyhood was passed on the old homestead and his earliest recollections are of the surrounding pioneer scenes. He remembers seeing deer, turkeys and wolves, and recalls the time when there were no roads here and the settlers crossed the prairies following the trails made by Indians. He obtained his early education in an old log schoolhouse, which was fitted up with slab benches, puncheon floor, stick and clay chimney, and an open fireplace. He remained at home until twenty-three years of age and took care of his parents, he being the youngest of the family.

February 14, 1860, Mr. Sponseller and Miss Elizabeth Krypt, who was born in this county, in 1837, were united in marriage. A sketch of her family will be found in the biography of her brother, William Krypt, occupying another page in this work. Of the eight children born to our subject 'a wife, we make the following mention: Mary E.; Alice, who married John Rindehen, a carpenter in Canton; Laura A., Mrs. Samuel Swartz, whose husband is a farmer in Osnaburg Township; Ada, the wife of William Kitzmiller, a coal miner in this locality; Cora, Katie, Sonora and William.

After his marriage, our subject farmed the home place, getting one-third of the profits, and later, when providing himself with a team and other necessary implements, was given a one-half share until the death of his father, when he fell heir to the homestead, comprising two hundred and twenty acres of land. He devotes his time to mixed farming and keeps on his place good breeds of cattle, horses and sheep. He is a sensible, practical, efficient man in the discharge of his affairs and in his personality is moral, conscientious and upright. His present neat frame residence was erected in 1875 and the estate is further embellished by a large barn and all the necessary outbuildings, which stamp its owner as a man of progress and enterprise. In his political views, he is a Republican, and in objects which will tend to increase the prosperity of the country, particularly in that community in which he makes his home, Mr. Sponseller is interested. He has been a member of the Lutheran Church for the past thirty-five years and contributes liberally of his means towards its support.

When the father of our subject came to this county, his worldly possessions consisted of a one-horse wagon, two cows and one cent in money. Where now stands the prosperous city of Canton, were three log houses, and in going thither he used to crawl from log to log to keep from getting wet. Coffee at that time was fifty cents per pound, and the first year his family only used one pound. The nearest market was Cleveland, and after disposing of his grain there he would bring home on the return trip salt, for which two barrels of flour were exchanged, leather, etc."

"Mr. Sponseller was in politics a staunch Republican . He was a very active member of the Lutheran congregation at Clearspring. His place of business, at the time when the Confederates went through the town on their raid to burn Chambersburg, was at the west end of Clearspring. They plundered his tailoring establishment, and he had a narrow escape from death by a stray bullet from one of their guns."

ILLNESS OF REV. A. A. PARR Rev. Amos A. Parr, of Lock Haven, well known here, is again in a serious condition suffering from valvular affection of the heart. Last fall Mr. Parr suffered a severe attack while visiting his mother near Littlestown, but so far recovered as to enable the attending physician to remove him to a New York sanitarium. He had recovered partly, but the strenuous work over Christmas brought on another attack. Mrs. Parr, the wife, is also an invalid, she having broken a leg as the result of a fall several months ago. and is only able to get about on crutches. The oldest daughter of the couple is also suffering with a nervous complaint.

Francis Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. A. Smith, was arrested last Friday afternoon by Constable W. E. E. Henkel, on a warrant issued by Squire R. M. Straley, on information of J. S. Maring, of Mountpleasant township, formerly of Hanover, on a charge of assault with intent to commit rape.

Young Smith was delivering bread to a party in the neighborhood of Kirkpatrick's school house, Mt. Pleasant township, Thursday evening, when he met Alverta, the 10-year-old daughter of Joseph Babylon, of Baltimore, a former resident of this place, who has been adopted by the Maring family, and who was bringing the cattle from the pasture field, on road leading from the York and Gettysburg turnpike to the schoolhouse. Smith jumped from the vehicle, it is alleged, and seizing the child, attempted to commit the crime, when she began screaming, and to muffle the cries he forced a handkerchief into her mouth. The child fought desperately for her freedom, and finally, Smith, probably fearing detection, allowed her to depart without accomplishing his purpose. The defendant was brought before the Justice, where he entered bail in the sum of $600 for a hearing at 4 p.m. this Thursday. New Oxford Item.

FATHER AND SIX SONS ATTEND BANQUET The New Oxford Times - January 24, 1926 Harry L. Sponseller, who reside on the Clayton Berkheimer farm, Oxford township, and six of his ten sons were present at the Lutheran Fathers' and Sons' banquet held in St. Mark's Lutheran church, Hanover, last evening. Fathers and sons gathered at this banquet from Lutheran charges of seven townships, including churches at New Oxford, East Berlin, Abbottstown, New Baltimore, West Manheim, McSherrystown and Hanover. Mr. Sponseller purchased seven tickets of the allotment assigned to the New Oxford Lutheran church, of which he is a member. Besides the six sons who accompanied their father to the meeting in Hanover, Mr. Spouseller has four more stocky youngsters below the age of ten. The ten boys make a hale and hearty bunch of "farm help" any farmer would be proud of. They are all at home and none is married. Father is Farmer Mr. Sponseller is some husky farmer himself, in the prime of life, standing six feet and weighing at his best 196 pounds, while Mrs. Sponseller is a mere slip of a woman who has a lot of managing to do with all the men folk around. Mrs. Sponseller, who was before marriage Miss Edna Spangler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Spangler, near the Hoffman Orphanage, and Mr. Sponseller were married in 1904. The boys in the order of their birth are: George, 20; Harry, Jr., 18; Willis, 16; Clyde, 15; Gervis, 13; Edgar, 11; Curtis, 9; Melvin, 7; Donald, 5; and Richard, 2. Harry, Jr., is nearly as tall as his father and weighs 172 pounds at the age of 18. He and his brother George are employed at the Steacy and Wilton stone quarries, located a short distance from their home. The other boys who are old enough attend sessions at the Red Hill school. Mrs. Sponseller is ambitious to have at least two of her boys, probably Gervis and Donald, study for the ministry, but Mr. Sponseller would be satisfied to have them all turn out good farmers. The family may take undeniable pride in the fact that they come from sturdy stock. Their grandparents from both sides are still living, as well as Mrs. Sponseller's grandfather, and their great-grandfather, David L. Spangler, near St. John's Church, who will reach his eighty-ninth milestone next April. "William H. Shipley attended the public schools of Frederick City. When was but nine years old his father died, leaving his mother with a family of very small children, and he was early forced to seek his own livelihood. When he was fourteen years old he stopped school and assisted his mother in the conduct of the farm until the outbreak of the Civil War. He then enlisted in the Confederate Army in the command of "Stonewall" Jackson, and participated in twenty-seven battles, among which were South Mountain, Antietam and Gettysburg. At the last named fight he was wounded seven times, being shot in the side and lower limbs. He was taken prisoner and confined for twenty-five months in a hospital in Baltimore. For his gallantry he was promoted to be sergeant after the battle of Gettysburg. Upon returning to Frederick City after the close of the war, Mr. Shipley obtained a position as foreman of the brickyard of the late James Whitehill. For a period of nineteen years he served in the capacity of bookkeeper and manager. In 1874, he purchased the property which he now occupies, and embarked in the bottling of beer, porter, ale and soft drinks. He has built up a large trade and his establishment is one of the largest of its kind in Western Maryland. He is the leading bottler of Frederick, is a successful business man, and is one of the well known and substantial citizens of the city."

He became a member of Fredonia Council, No. 46, in 1874, shortly after the Council was instituted, and when Francis Scott Key Council, No. 48, was formed, he withdrew from the former and became one of the charter members of the latter Council and is one of its trustees. He also held membership in the State Council for seventeen years, and is now a representative from that body to the National Council. Mr. Shipley is also connected with King David Lodge, No. 50, I.O.O.F., in which he is a trustee and also a marshal. He is also identified with the Encampment, being guide in that branch of the lodge. He holds membership in Frederick Council, No. 1196, Royal Arcanum; in Frederick Conclave of Heptasophs; in Frederick Aerie of Eagles; and is a charter member of the Order of Owls of Frederick. For about forty-six years he has been a member of the Junor Fire Compan, and has been on the standing committee of that organization for some years. he has served a president of the Maryland Bottlers' Association, and is widely known through that branch of trade".

"Was born on a farm near Frederick. While a lad, he was engaged in farming and during the winter months attended the public schools of the neighborhood. At the age of fifteen years, he came to Frederick City and engaged in various occupations. After some time, Mr. Sponseller entered the employ of Charles E. Mealey, who conducted a livery stable, as a driver. After two years at this establishment, he went to Edward Simm's livery stable in South Market street, which is the place now owned by him. In 1893, Mr. Sponseller went in the livery business for himself at the old Mealey stand, known as the Mountain City Stables. He later rented the Palace Stables, and conducted business at this location in South Market street for three years. In 1897, Mr. Sponseller purchased the Pioneer Livery Stables from Edward Simm. This is the finest livery stable in Frederick City and does a larger business than any similar enterprise in the city. Mr. Sponseller has been very successful in his venture and is one of Frederick's progressive business men. Harry Cyril spent most of his childhood on his father's farm and received an education up through and including the eighth grade. As a teenager he was hired out to do some farm work for other people. He went to work at the stone quarry in Adams County for the Bethlehem Co. and he later worked as a chauffeur. He later became a waiter at Mt. Washington Hotel, New Hampshire, where his future wife also worked. After Pearl and Harry married, the Depression struck. During this time, Harry worked at many jobs. He clipped cows (clipping hair from the cow's udders), owned a bar called the "Cabaret", and worked at Hanover Shoe Farms for two or three years. Later he worked for S. Morgan Smith, which was later bought out by Allis-Chalmers, and then the shipyard in Sparrows Point, Baltimore, Maryland. He worked at the shipyard during the war as a welder. After the war he sold Massey-Ferguson tractors and Snap-On Tools.

Around 1950 he and his brother, Gervis, bought an Esso gas station, which they owned for a few years. Harry then returned to the Allis-Chalmers Co. and worked there until retirement.

When Harry was a baby, one of his uncles called him "a blue-eyed beaut" and the nickname "Boot" stuck with him for the rest of his life.

Harry was a member of St. Mark's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Hanover; the Conewago Campers Association; York and Adams County Game and Fish Association in Abbottstown; and the Inernation Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers. He retired from the former Allis Chalmers Company, Inc. in York, Pennsylvania in 1974.
